

Ethically Responsible Mental Health and Psychosocial Support (MHPSS)

Dr. Shah at World Bank 14th Meeting Informal Inter-Agency Group on Global Mental Health/Psychosocial Issues

- □ Integrating Global Mental Health Principles in Disaster Work

- □ Re-tooling Local Traditions to Address Disasters

- □ Re-tooling Islamic Traditions to Address the 2005 Earthquake in Pakistan

- □ Inter-Agency Standing Committee Guidelines on Local Traditions for MHPSS

- □ Ethical Principles in MHPSS: Autonomy & Beneficence

- □ Duty for Informed Consent and Providing Alternatives

- □ 7 Steps for Integrative Psychosocial Resilience

Culture, Trauma and Haiti -- Mistakes and Methods in Transnational MHPSS

Remarks in a March 2010 panel organized by the American Group Psychotherapy Association & the William Alanson White Institute in New York City.

- Culture, Trauma and Haiti, Part 1

- Culture, Trauma and Haiti, Part 2

Full Panel's Recording <http://www.wawp.org> for purchase:

National Public Radio excerpts

Dr. Shah interviewed by WAMU's Michael Cottman in June 2009 following Washington D.C. Metro train tragedy.

- Normal reactions in first responders who serve in tragedies

- Trauma's cost to society

- Psychosocial first aid training in Ethiopia

- Alleviating vicarious trauma

- Journalists and trauma

- Children and the effect of disaster news

- Domestic violence trauma and women's health

- Training disaster workers in India and Pakistan